Here's What You Will Get Out of Health Insurance Reform

Look over the answers, then tell Vice President Biden what's most important about reform to you.

Reform will bring down costs generally and make insurance more affordable and accessible, ensuring more choices for quality coverage

Reform will establish an insurance exchange that will provide easy one-stop shopping to compare rates and services and promote competition

Reform will offer tax credits and assistance to families, and to small businesses so they can offer competitive, affordable rates to their employees

Reform will require plans to cover basic pediatric services, as well as dental, vision, and hearing needs for children

Reform will greatly improve access to pediatric care and address shortages by investing in an expanded health care workforce

Reform will promote better accountability for the quality of care children receive

Reform will streamline and simplify paperwork and cut the bureaucracy for you and your doctor

Reform will ensure you always have choices of quality, affordable health insurance no matter how often you move or change jobs

Reform puts a cap on what insurance companies can force you to pay in out of pocket expenses, co-pays and deductibles

Reform will expand coverage for children through their parents' plan until they're twenty-six if their parents so choose

Reform will eliminate discrimination based on pre-existing conditions or medical history

Reform will prohibit insurance companies from dropping or watering down insurance coverage for you or your family members if you become seriously ill

Reform will prevent insurance companies from placing annual or lifetime caps on the coverage you receive
